

Are you tired of Worrying about rent, cut off notices & groceries?
Do you want to build a better life for yourself & your loved ones?

Then Getting Ahead may just be what you are looking for!

Getting Ahead is only for those who want to make a better life for themselves and their loved ones.

It helps the inquisitive find and builds resources so they can put together their own plan and make the changes that will lead them into a more stable, secure and happy future.

Through guided activities and talking with others, learners discover resources in themselves and in the community look at why they are poor, set personal goals and take the first steps toward a better future.

Who can participate? Anyone in Lincoln County, OK

What might you discover for yourself?

- what you are already doing right & what you must change to build a better life
- how to look ahead to a better future
- how to set goals and succeed
- making your own plan to hang onto you money and have a better income
- how people with different incomes look at and deal with the world
- what happens as you begin making changes in how you live and make decisions
- what strengths you have that can help you build a better life and what help the community offers
- much more!
